

The McFarland Trial.

NEW YORK, April 20.—The committee is engaged in the examination of the McFarland trial, and Mr. Greeley has been called to the bar to represent the defense. It is believed that the trial will be held in the Court of Common Pleas in Kent on June 1st. Mr. McFarland was never represented by a lawyer, and it is proposed to get a lawyer for the prosecution. Only applied to Judge Peter, and he said he had no time. W. W. Gibbs said he had no time in the case.

Mr. Graham here asked a question relative to the expenses of the trial. Mr. Gibbs said he proposed to show the bias of the witness, and that he was so implicated in this case that he could not be a witness in it. He will be represented by a lawyer.

The reporter said he should excuse himself, as he was asked to contribute to the expenses of the prosecution. Newspaper men, he said, were making active efforts to secure the capture of the entire band of assassins, and two hundred men were sent to the scene.
